

WHO IS JESUS?

WEEK TWO

Jesus is a central part of the Christian faith. His very existence is a divisive topic. Many who aren't Christians can even agree on the historical nature of Jesus being a man.

This week, kids will go deeper and ask the question "Was Jesus really who He said He was?"

Perhaps this is a question you have struggled with at some point in your life. I encourage you to dig deeper and explore alongside your child(ren) regardless of your prior relationship with Jesus.

And as always, we have resources available for you (on the back). You can always reach out to one of our pastors!

EXPLORING THE QUESTION

MAIN IDEA

Jesus is the Son of God who was sent to Earth to save EVERYONE. He is fully God and He is fully man. He died on the cross to take on the sins of the world, dying in our place.

CONVERSATION

(questions your kids may ask you)

- What have you thought about Jesus in the past?
- What do you think about Jesus now?
- If you had a chance to meet Jesus, how would you feel and what would you say to Him?

RESOURCES

- Adult Alpha guide
- The Bible Project Video: The Son of Man (Jesus often referred to himself as the Son of Man. But what does this mean? Explore this fascinating phrase to see its significance.)

▶ THE BIBLE PROJECT VIDEO: THE SON OF MAN

One of the most common ways that Jesus is referred to in the New Testament is with the title "Christ." This word means "anointed one" or "messiah," and it refers to the Jewish hope of a royal savior who comes to save the world from death and evil. The four Gospel accounts are full of moments where people acknowledge Jesus as "the Christ." It makes sense that Jesus would be called by this title, but it does leave one surprising detail unexplained. Jesus almost never uses this title to describe himself. Instead, he regularly uses another title, "the Son of Man."

Was Jesus fully human?

- He had a human body
  - Tired (John 4:6)
  - Hungry (Matthew 4:2)
- He had human emotions
  - Anger (Mark 11:15–17)
  - Love (Mark 10:21)
  - Sadness (John 11:32–36)
- He had human experiences
  - Temptation (Mark 1:13)
  - Learning (Luke 2:46–52)
  - Work (Mark 6:3)
  - Obedience (Luke 2:51)

Was he more than a man, a great human, a religious teacher?
(Matthew 16:13–16)

1. WHAT DID HE SAY ABOUT HIMSELF?

- Teaching centred on himself
  - 'I am the bread of life' (John 6:35)
  - 'If the Son sets you free, you really will be free.' (John 8:36, NLT)
  - 'I am the light of the world' (John 8:12)
  - 'I am the way and the truth and the life' (John 14:6)
  - 'Come to me...' (Matthew 11:28–29)
  - Receive me – receive God (Matthew 10:40)
  - Welcome me – welcome God (Mark 9:37)
  - If you have seen me you have seen God (John 14:9)

- His indirect claims
  - To forgive sins (Mark 2:5)
  - To judge the world (Matthew 25:31,32,40,45)

- His direct claims
  - Messiah (Mark 14:61–62)
  - Son of God (Mark 14:61)
  - God the Son (John 20:26–29)
  - 'I and the Father are one.' (John 10:30)

Author of The Chronicles of Narnia and Oxford historian C. S. Lewis wrote:

'A man who was merely a man and said the sort of things Jesus said would not be a great moral teacher. He would either be (insane)... or else he would be "the Devil of Hell". You must make your choice. Either this man was, and is, the Son of God, or else (insane) or something worse... but let us not come up with any patronising nonsense about his being a great human teacher. He has not left that open to us. He did not intend to.'<sup>3</sup>

2. WHAT EVIDENCE IS THERE TO SUPPORT HIS CLAIMS?

- His teaching (Mark 12:31; Luke 6:31; Matthew 5:44)
- His life/works (John 2:1–11; 10:37–38)
- His character (Luke 23:34)
- His fulfilment of Old Testament prophecy
- His conquest of death

Evidence for the resurrection:

- His absence from the tomb
  - Theories:
    - Jesus did not die (John 19:33–34)
    - disciples stole the body
    - authorities stole the body
    - robbers stole the body (John 20:1–9)
- His presence with the disciples
  - Did they hallucinate?
  - Number of appearances over a six-week period
    - 11+ appearances
    - 500+ people
  - Nature of appearances (Luke 24:36–43)
- Immediate effect
  - Birth and growth of Christian church
- Effect down the ages
  - Experience of Christians down the ages
  - Over 2,300 million Christians in the world today
